

To whom it may concern,

I am writing to convey my concern for the possible consolidation of the different media outlets. I feel that we need to keep in force and even strengthen the laws that protect the public, rather than promote the private sector when it comes to diversity of views and freedom of expression. On June 2nd., I urge you to please keep the current ownership rules.

Most sincerely,

Jeffrey Weisberg